

Topics covered on course :

- Roles & responsibilities
- Risk Management
- Hazard identification and control
- Personal Protective Equipment
- Accident Prevention & equipment
- Tool considerations

Suitability : Students must be free of any physical or medical condition that may affect their ability to work safely on a construction site.

Prerequisites :

- Prerequisite unit of competency: None

Outcome :

- Statement of Attainment for the nationally recognised unit of competency CPCCOHS1001A Work safely in the construction industry
- Construction Induction White Card

Duration : Minimum four hours

Cost :

Price depends on traveling cost and number of students. Call us for a quote.